Dare I say it but perhaps he would be overturning the tables as the Synod voted to set up a Committee to respond to George Carey's comments. In my own experience, I have certainly found that the corporate lawyers, investment bankers, and businesspeople of the global economy understand how to manage, instrumentalize, or simply operate within a plural and disaggregated global legal order far more distinctively than do their counterparts in national government service, diplomacy, or the world of international public institutions. Will you help me choose.
