The biblical account of creation speaks of the solitude of Adam, the first man, and God's decision to give him a helper. The tone of the text itself and the relation that it establishes between author and reader are also closer to what can be found in literature than in political theory. When the local Reef Dive Resort on Matakang Island in Sabah sank a cargo ship to create an artificial reef for divers, they had the foresight to fit an underwater mailbox, the first of its kind in Malaysia.
