If every action has its consequences, an evil embedded in the structures of a society has a constant potential for disintegration and death. This was the biggest worry for me - that the children would not be able to form independent thought and it would impact on their life chances. For Bruce and Denise Morcombe - the parents of Daniel - and his brothers, Bradley and Dean, it was apparent within hours that something was very wrong. In time the young man withdrew from his vantage point in the tree.
